

Saregama bags the music rights for Indu Sarkar

Bharat Shah and Bhandarkar Entertainment's latest movie will feature music by Anu Malik

Press Release:

24th April, 2017: Saregama India has acquired the music rights of Indu Sarkar. The film is set against the backdrop of the Emergency years in India from 1975 to 1977.

Vikram Mehra, Managing Director, Saregama India Ltd. shared his views on the collaboration, "Madhur Bhandarkar has always made critically and commercially great cinema and we are excited at this opportunity to collaborate with him and Bharat bhai."

National Award winning director, Madhur Bhandarkar says, "We are happy to associate with Saregama, they own some of the best retro songs in the industry. As the film is in the 70s, you can expect a lot of 'retro' themed music composed by Anu Malik."

The film starring Kirti Kulhari, Tota Roy Choudhary, Anupam Kher and Neil Nitin Mukesh is slated to release on 21st July.

About Saregama India Ltd:

Listed on the NSE and BSE, Saregama India Limited, is India's largest and best-known music recording company.

Formerly known as The Gramophone Company of India Ltd, Saregama owns the largest music archives in India, one of the biggest in the world. Saregama has now expanded into other branches of entertainment – it is involved in publishing, television software and digital content. It also runs studio facilities in Dum Dum, Kolkata making it one of the best end-to-end entertainment houses in the country.